Jack,

Thanks for the heads up. It is a really terrible failure of transparency. We are organizing a community meeting on Monday April 4th to air it and will have to figure out from there what to do. I don't know if contracts were signed etc.

Also FYI we just put in a motion to rescind a development in that same area. Tom had authorized via motion a zone change and plan amendment for a development on Cahuenga.

It keeps coming but I have also heard that Tony is moving so at least there is that.

Thx

Just an FYI. A heads up.

Since Friday, I have had at least five people talk to me about Runyon Canyon, the basketball court, R & P failure to notify the community, FORC being bought off, transparency, and Tom being Tom.

DWP – OK, fix the pipes. But a basketball court – No way – gangs, smoking, fire, etc.

And several do not even live in the hills.

At times, I thought they might be taking lessons from Tony, your good friend in Lake Hollywood, who claims he is moving to OC.
